

SPEAKER'S BIO

JIM TUECKE

COMMISSIONER
FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE

Jim Tuecke is a commissioner assigned to Iowa region of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS). Jim provides services for Iowa and other areas as assigned. He provides collective bargaining and grievance mediation to the private, public and federal sectors.

Jim also provides numerous training programs. Some offered include establishing labor management committees, steward supervisor training, contract administration, alternative dispute resolution, and collective bargaining. Programs can also be created to meet a groups needs.

Prior to joining FMCS, Jim worked as a business agent representative for Teamsters Local 238 in Iowa, where he represented employees in the public and private sector. Jim holds a degree in Criminal Justice and worked as a law enforcement officer up until joining the Teamsters. In law enforcement he gained experience in all aspects of the field, including patrol, jail, investigation, civil, and K9.